Foreword

The publication of this yearbook has been a challenge to all of us. And now that we present this edition of "BELLES MEMOIRES" we are proud of what this work has meant to us.

It has required the co-operation of our sponsor, students, staff, and those who have contributed their support through advertisements. We wish to thank you who have helped us.

The challenges of higher learning, adventure, and new worlds to conquer lie immediately before the members of the Senior Class. May we meet these challenges with courage, faith, and steadfastness of purpose.

Annual Staff

Our work done, we sit back and await the day when the Belles Memoires will emerge from the press. Collecting pictures, pecking on typewriters, and preparing material for the publishers was no easy task, but we finally completed our job. When you saw us dashing about the building, shaking our heads and frowning over a set of figures, we were wondering if and how we could raise the money for this volume of Belles Memoires.

Thank you for your support.

It is with extreme pride and sincerity that we honor a woman who heard and heeded the plea, "We need you." With sincere appreciation for her time and efforts to help students, the Senior Class humbly dedicates the 1966 "Senior Class" to MRS. GENEVIVE T. BROOME. Mrs. Broome has been like a "second-mother" to the Senior Class since the seventh grade when she came to Oak Hill. She has progressed with us through the years. Her sympathetic understanding of the students' minds has won our admiration. Her guidance has won our respect. Through her, our steps cease to falter, and our spirits lift high into the future.

Teacher of the Year

The Senior Class of 1966 has chosen Mr. Wright Pearson as Teacher of the Year. His ever present willingness and untiring effort to help us during our senior year will be remembered always.

ADMINISTRATION

It is a distinct privilege for me to congratulate every member of the Senior Class of Oak Hill School for the year 1965-1966.

Yours has been the unique task of making some beginnings, of taking a long stride forward, and of reaching your Commencement. Each of you, along with underclassmen, staff, and administration, is to be commended for your understanding, your tolerance, your friendliness, and your cooperative spirit in meeting the issues and working toward the solution of complex problems in an ever-changing world.

I bid you good luck and Godspeed.

Senior Class Poem

We, the seniors, of Oak Hill High,
Know too well how time does fly,
Since we were small and started to school
To learn to live by the Golden Rule.

We rose early and hurried each day,
And studied hard along the way,
Until at last our goal is near,
This we realize is our last year.

Someday we'll think about our past,
The seventy-seven students in our class
We'll remember our happiness and joy,
With each girl and each boy.

The many friends from which we part,
We leave them with a heavy heart,
Our departure, we hope, will cause everyone,
To remember only the good things we have done.

We look to our future as a mountain top:
Our graduation as just a stop:
Where we rest to gather strength,
For our adventurous journey of great length.

With tears in our eyes we must leave
This grand old school, but we believe,
That we'll always remember Oak Hill High
And the fun we had in days gone by.

Now with our future goal in view,
Oak Hill we are proud of you!
Hoping that remembering us you may,
Be very proud of us someday.

Class History

It was four years ago on a bright sunny September morning in 1962, that we started on the great adventure of entering high school life. We all remember clearly our feelings of awe, expectation and anticipation as we began our high school careers under the guidance of Mrs. Broome, Mr. Roper and Mr. Gibbs. The class officers were as follows; Mrs. Broome's Homeroom - President: Roy Brittain, Vice-President: Linda Kay Whisnant, Secretary: Jack Annis, Treasurer: Jill Sisk, Reporter: Brenda Whisnant. Mr. Gibbs Homeroom - President: Judy Vance, Vice President: Johnny Sutton, Secretary: Mary Sue Stamey, Treasurer: Judy Stephens, Reporter: Linda Harbison. Mr. Roper's Homeroom - President: Pam Dula, Vice President: Dixie Harris, Secretary: Lane Throneburg, Treasurer: Rama Lee Browning. Reporter: Gwynn Keller.

However, time stops for no one. Thus we found ourselves as sophomores, well on our way to being called upperclassmen. Our advisors were Mrs. Moore, Mr. Harris, and Mr. Mull. Officers for our sophomore year were: Mrs. Moore's Homeroom - President: Linda Kay Whisnant, Vice-President: Gwynn Keller, Secretary: Roy Brittain, Treasurer: Lois Leonhardt. Mr. Mull's Homeroom - President; Judy Stephens, Secretary Linda Harbison, Treasurer: Kathy Daniels. Mr. Harris's Homeroom - President: Doris Beck, Vice-President: Carolyn Franklin, Secretary: Brenda Grindstaff, Treasurer: Land Throneburg, Reporter: Brenda Whisnant. This year fifteen of our classmates were honored by becoming Beta Club members.

They were Roy Brittain, Rama Browning, Kathy Daniels, Pam Dula, Carolyn Franklin, Linda Harbison, Dixie Harris, Lois Leonhardt, Zona Mull, Mary Sue Stamey, Judy Stephens, Johnny Sutton, Lane Throneburg, Brenda Whisnant, and Linda Kay Whisnant.

As time flew by we found ourselves as juniors. We had become upperclassmen, second only to the seniors. Things began to happen as we planned for our Junior-Senior Prom which was a great success. We were certainly fortunate to have Maurice Williams and The Zodiacs as our entertainment for the evening. Our Junior advisors were Miss Allen and Mr. Barrier. Class officers were as follows: Miss Allen's Homeroom - President: Judy Stephens, Vice-President: Dixie Harris, Secretary: Tommy Canipe, Treasurer: Kathy Daniels, Reporter: Linda Harbison, Chaplain: Brenda Whisnant. Mr. Barrier's Homeroom - President: Zona Mull, Vice President: Jerry Reed, Secretary: Lane Thronebury, Treasurer: Roy Brittain, Reporter: Carolyn Franklin. For the first time at Oak Hill a French club, Le Cercle Francais, was organized. Fourteen of our classmates were accepted into its membership. They were Rama Lee Browning, LaVern Cannon, Kathy Daniels, Pam Dula, Carolyn Franklin, Linda Harbison, Becky Keller, Gwynn Keller, Lois Leonhardt, Zona Mull, Mary Sue Stamey, Karen Burleson, Judy Stephens, Lane Throneburg, and Brenda Whisnant. Also this year Judy Stephens was selected as Miss Hi Miss.

Class History

Finally the time arrived. We were seniors, second to none. We thought the time would never come, but we finally received our rings. Senior officers were - President: Tommy Canipe, Vice President: Eddie Hunter, Secretary: Zona Mull, Treasurer: Judy Stephens, Mrs. Broome, Mr. Mull, and Mr. Pearson gave us their shoulders to lean on during our last and most difficult year of high school. Also this year Zona Mull was crowned Homecoming Queen and Judy Stephens was chosen Maid of Honor. The honor of being All-Conference was given to Tommy Canipe and the honor of being Honorable Mention All Conference was given to Eddie Hunter.

But Father Time waits for no man. So we the Senior Class of 1966 leave behind us a history of fond memories which will not be forgotten as we write our own histories throughout the remainder of our lives.

Class Prophecy

Today, June 1, 1986, we Janie Bong and Jimmie Blipp, alias Pam Dula and Brenda Whisnant, are aboard the luxury liner The Lively Lunthead. We were sent by our fellow associate, Secret Agent 007, James Bond, to investigate our fellow 1966 graduates of Oak Hill High. It is suspected that our former classmates may now be racketeers, and it is our job to find out who they are.

Before setting sail, we receive a welcoming message from the ship's Captain, Rip (Kendall) Barrier. After the welcoming message the ship's steward, Jerry Reed, takes our bags to our cabin. *The maid, Henrietta Ervin, is just leaving our room. We learn that the next cabin is occupied by none other than Doris Beck and Ruby Clark who are on leave from the W. A. V. E. S.

At twelve bells we go to the ship's dining room. The head waiter, James Noles, takes our order. Of course our lunch was delicious, being prepared by chief cook and bottle washer, Phillip Ervin. Alexander Corpening does the honor of uncorking our champagne.

After dinner we relax in the sun while Carl Duckworth and Jerry Stamey swab the deck. On the lower deck we catch a glimpse of recreation directors Charla Young and Bill Keller.

Next we go to Becky's Barn, operated by Becky Shuping. Becky is assisted by Dixie Harris and Janet Hurt. While being beautified we meet Mary Hunter, who is now a well-known psychologist, and Mary Sue Stamey, who is now a famed commercial artist. Plumber Jim Wascaster has the job of fixing a leaky faucet.

After supper we go to the ship's entertainment hall. Charles Gantt starts the act off by giving his world famous hog-calling act. Dell Fleming is asked for an encore to do her renowned belly dance. Herman Kincaid does some fine opera singing and Jeanette Whisnant sings her new hit song I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles.

After three days on the liner, we reach Miami Beach. We walk up Miami Boulevard and we meet Jackie Johnson selling violets. Norman McLean, now a chauffeur, brings to us our special forty-thousand dollar Aston-Martin. Our instructions are to leave immediately for Oak Hill, North Carolina.

While driving along a scenic highway we see John Lingafelt and Earl Stamey operating a fruit stand. We stop at a gas station owned and operated by Loraine and Christine Allman. The attendants, Gwynn Keller, and Jo Ann Lowdermilk, give us special service.

Once on our way again, we pick up hitchhikers Larry Putnam and Richard Belton, who are on their way to Charlotte for a very important business deal. Policewomen Ida Jean Conley, Patricia Kincaid, and Patricia Ervin stop us for speeding.

Finally we arrive at Oak Hill. We stay at a hotel owned by Ruby Smith and operated by Jack Annis.

We visit the University of Oak Hill, the "Harvard of the South." We talk with Lane Throneburg, the president of the University. Roy Brittain, the Dean of Men, takes us on a tour. We see a sign on Professor Carolyn Franklin's door which reads, "Quiet, Mathematician at work!"

We learn that Lois Leonhardt and Zona Mull are the heads of the photography department. We hear Tommy Canipe, the Professor of History, lecturing about the importance of pigeons during World War I. We hear a loud explosion from the lab which is conducted by Linda Harbison. We smell burned biscuits and we learn that Sharon Fox is the head of the Economics Department . . . Clifford Smith shows us his award winning paintings. Next we visit Eddie Hunter who is conducting ballet classes for outstanding students Alice Coleman, Patsy Stewart, Mary St. John, and Robert Johnson, Jill Sisk and Linda Kay Whisnant, P. E. instructors, are doing a trapeze act in the gym.

Now we travel to the well-known Oak Hill discotheque. Judy Vance, the hat check girl, takes our coats. Rama Lee Browning, the club's hostess, tells us that Kathy Daniels is now serving as a foreign missionary at the South Pole. Waitresses Joyce McCall and Leona Self serve us delicious hot dogs prepared by head cook Ronnie Whisnant. Entertainment at the club consists of Judy Stephens and Patsy Burnette doing their à go-go dances. We are informed that Karen Burlison is the executive secretary to the President of the United States and Linda Truax is teaching psychology at U. C. L. A. Brenda Kay Ervin and Reba Clontz are serving as interpreters at the U. N.

Suddenly, our two-way wrist radios buzz. Deanna Warren, special agent in London, informs us that the rack-teers we are looking for have been arrested on the charge of bootlegging. They are Mr. John N. Sutton, a prosperous civil engineer, and Mr. Ronald Perry, a London playboy.

The mission has now ended. Although we were sent on a wild goose chase, the mission had at least one advantage. We learned about our fellow alumni who owe all their prosperity to dear old Oak Hill High.

Action Shots

Hold your hands up to the sky...

It's mine. You can't have it!

I can jump higher than you.

Now hit her again, Casey!

Sure, you're tense, nervous, and upset, but...

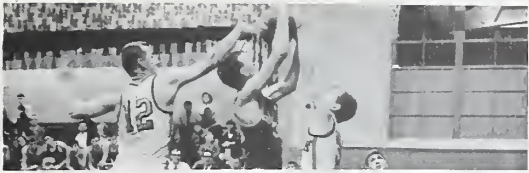

And the score goes up another notch.

We won again. Whoopee!

O.K. Everybody up on your toes.

Hey! Wait a minute

Eek, will he make it?

No, we're not leaving!

Are you ready boys?

There it goes.

Look! Up in the sky.

What's everybody looking for.

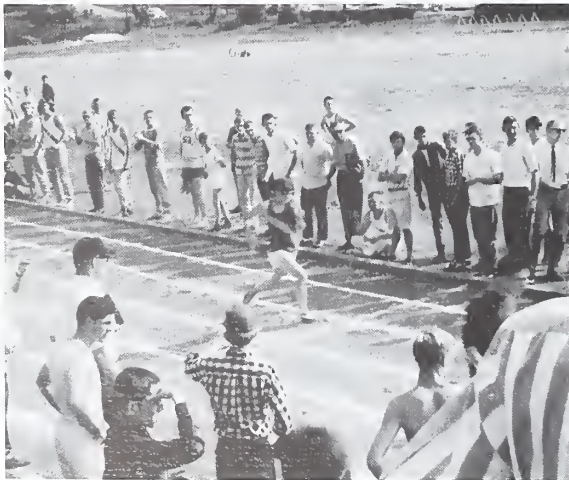

Won't somebody please help us!

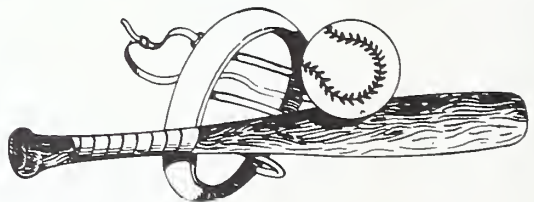

Don't lie down on the job boys.

Ready or not, here we come.
